

WILLIAM COOPER

Award for Faith and Community in Action

2009 NOMINATION FORM DEADLINE – FEBRUARY 16, 2009

The William Cooper Award for Faith and Community in Action is a distinct honor the Governor of Kentucky bestows upon one citizen annually at the Governor's Prayer Breakfast.

The recipient's merits embody the heart of the Commonwealth: united we stand; divided we fall. Working tirelessly in service to others with a motivation of faith, the citizen humbly leaves a mark on the community with a lasting impact.

Please complete the form below to tell us about the individual who has touched your life and the lives of others throughout Kentucky.

Personal Information

Name

Name of Affiliation/Organization

_____, KY _____ () _____ - _____
Street Address Zip Code Home Phone Number

Background Information

Provide a brief history of the work the individual you are nominating. Items to address may include – but are not limited to – a description of the initial motivation the individual had to serve others; an important event that caused the individual to become passionate about a particular cause/mission; or other biographical information that would be helpful in telling the story of the individual's service.

Current Information

Describe the current role the individual fulfills in service to the Commonwealth.

Final Remarks

Please share reasons the individual you are nominating stands out from the many other Kentucky citizens who serve in their communities.

Nominating Individual Information

_____	_____
Name	Name of Affiliation/Organization
_____	_____	()	_____ - _____
Street Address	, KY	Zip Code	Home Phone Number

E-mail Address

Please submit this application to the following address by Monday, February 16, 2009:

Mr. Colmon Elridge
Office of Faith Based Initiatives
700 Capitol Avenue, Suite 106
Frankfort, KY 40601

GUIDELINES: The nominee must be a current resident of Kentucky. Also, the aforementioned service must have been completed to the benefit of Kentucky citizens.